PhD- Arabic / Literature and Criticisms- Yarmouk University 2012/2013

Supervisor:

Prof, May Ahmad Yusif

Abu-l-Ala al-Maari is one of the most important marks in the modern and old Arabic literature since he had a vast knowledge, a deep experience as well as a wide vision note to mention his unique genius thinking. Therefore, he was creative in all literature genres and he contributed widely in the literature criticisms within new opinions and new additions, this made him a literary critic in the filed of the Arabic literature field. Moreover, it is mentioned that he was a scholar in language and skilled in grammar enriching the Arabic language with new methods as well as creative potentials reached a high level of semantic and structure indications motivating many specialized scholars to make their studies and researches about it.

With regard to the structure of this study, the researcher divided it into a preface, an introduction, three chapters and a conclusion.

In the introduction the researcher tried to explain the concept of (code) through new and old language dictionaries as well as the new changes in the modern critic science.

The first chapter entitled (The code of entering to world of Abu-l-Ala al-Maari), this chapter was divided into three sections, an introduction to his life, and introduction to his language and an introduction within his philosophy, dogma and methodology.

In the second chapter entitled (The code of in Abu-l-Ala al-Maari messages) the researcher divided it into three sections, the first about his philosophy in naming his messages and prose works, the second section is about his code in his religion messages while the third was about his code in the intellectual and philosophical aspects of his messages.

The third chapter entitled (The Code in Quhfran Message: Applied study) contained three sections, the code in the introduction of Quhfran message (Preamble), the second the code of Abi Al-qareh (Who is abi al-qareh) and the third section is about the code in the Du'aa sentences in Qhufran message.
